

Curriculum Vitae
DANIEL J. FISHER, COL (Ret), MHA, FACHE
6425 Penn Ave
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
(412) 383-6902(o)
dfisher@pitt.edu

PROFILE OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Over 30 years of experience in healthcare leadership, administration and project management in a variety of business and healthcare delivery settings.
- Extensive experience in personnel management, project management, strategic and operational planning, problem solving, team building, customer service, emergency management planning, training and decision making.
- Results oriented professional with demonstrated ability to work collaboratively to optimize results while reducing costs, increasing productivity and embracing change.
- Extensive experience working with local, state and federal agencies.

EDUCATION

- MHA – Masters in Healthcare Administration - Baylor University
- BS - Economics - Rutgers University

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

05/10 – Present Assist Chair for Administration and Operations, Department of Rehabilitation Science and Technology, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa

Coordinate the day to day administrative operations of a large medical department within the School of Health and Rehabilitations Sciences, SHRS.

- Coordinate the fiscal administration, the human resources, grant support and submission, department reports and evaluations.
- Service as the Chair of the SHRS Planning and Budget Committee, PBC
- Service as the Department Strategic Plan coordinator.

08/06 – 03/09 Chief Medical Operations Planning, Joint Force Headquarters - National Capitol Region, (NCR) Fort McNair, Washington, D.C.

Developed, coordinated and conducted medical support plans for the Department of Defense (DOD) in the NCR. Coordinated DOD medical support to civilian authorities for Washington DC and the surrounding counties consisting of over four million people.

- Supported the 44th Presidential Inauguration by serving as the lead medical planner for the DOD and as a Co-Chair for the Inauguration Health and Medical Subcommittee. Planned and coordinated with over 25 local, state and federal agencies over a seven month period.
- Served as DOD lead medical planner for over 20 events in the NCR to include, the Papal Visit, G-20 Summit, 9-11 Memorial Dedication Ceremony, State Funeral of President Gerald R. Ford and State of the Union Addresses.
- Continuously coordinated and developed relationships with interagency partners such as the US Secret Service, White House Medical Staff, FBI, Health and Human Services,

DANIEL J. FISHER

Veterans Administration, Washington DC Emergency Management Agency and Department of Health, and countless other organizations throughout the NCR.

- Served three years as the medical project manager for the US Army Ten Miler run with over 25,000 participants. Worked with DOD medical facilities, local hospitals and community emergency management agencies to ensure a professional and safe event for all participants.

07/03 – 07/06 Chief Operations Officer/Deputy Commander for Administration, Bassett Army Community Hospital, Fort Wainwright, Alaska

Planned, directed, coordinated and provided leadership to the day to day operations of a 43 bed Army community hospital system with an annual operating budget of $28M, plus salaries, a staff of 500 personnel and an enrolled population of 35,000 beneficiaries.

- Project manager for multi-disciplinary team in preparation and implementation of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospital Organizations, JCAHO, survey.
- Implemented a web-based primary care appointments on-line system that was used in the first year by over 5,000 patients.
- Served as the project manager that worked collaboratively with physicians and a multi-disciplinary team that planned, developed and coordinated the transition, to include IT infrastructure, to a newly constructed $250M, 30 bed inpatient hospital.

04/99 – 07/03 Chief Medical Program Manager, Joint Forces Command, Norfolk, Virginia

Spearheaded the coordination and implementation of the medical support planning for deployed Department of Defense forces. Developed, reviewed and implemented medical support plans for various training exercises and real world deployments.

- Served as the DOD medical project manager for the Salt Lake City, Utah, XIX Winter Olympics by writing and coordinating the medical support plan for DOD forces supporting the Olympics.
- Served as project manager for a complex annual education and training conference consisting of over 30 presentations for 60 physician and administrator attendees.

06/95-06/97 Graduate Student, U.S. Army-Baylor University Graduate Program in Healthcare Administration, Fort Sam Houston, Texas

1983-1995 Various key leadership positions of increasing responsibility in a variety of healthcare organizations while serving in the United States Army Medical Dept.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE)
- Currently serving as President of the Army Baylor Alumni Association

PUBLICATIONS

- Book Chapter – Definitions, Description, and Complications of War-Related Injuries and Illnesses, Warrior Transition Leaders Medical Rehabilitation Handbook, Borden Institute, Pasquina & Fisher, pp 83-99