

Curriculum Vitae
Jason W. Hare, MPAS, PA-C, AT

Biographical

Name: Jason Whitney Hare, MPAS, PA-C, AT

Business University of Pittsburgh Office Phone:(412) 624-6771
Address: School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences Office Fax: (412) 624-7934
Physician Assistant Studies Program
UPARC
3010 William Pitt Way, Bldg A-7
Pittsburgh, PA 15238

Email addresses: jhare@pitt.edu
harejw@upmc.edu

Professional Objective

To maintain a full time faculty position, related to the Physician Assistant profession, with allowances for and encouragement to maintain clinical practice.

Professional Licenses and Certifications

- National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA) Certified Physician Assistant. Certificate # 1069765. Certified 4/13/2006; expires 12/31/16. Next recertification date: 2018.
- Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Dept of State Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs Licensed Medical Physician Assistant. License# MA052534; expires 12/31/16.
- National Provider Identifier (NPI) #: 1730250739
- DEA license #: MH3845344 Expires: 10/31/2018
- American Heart Association Healthcare Provider, CPR/AED (BLS); current.
- American Heart Association Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS) Provider; current.
- American Heart Association Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS) Provider; current.
- National Athletic Training Association Board of Certification Certified Athletic Trainer. Certificate #079802508. Certified 7/24/1998 to 12/31/2007.
- Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Dept of State Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs Licensed Athletic Trainer. License# RT003300. Certified 12/31/2002 to 12/31/2007.

- Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI Program) certified, Stage 1, Basic Course. ID#: 4159189. coursework requirements met for Biomedical Human Subjects Research (12/11/2015, expires 12/10/2018), Conflict of Interest (12/11/2015, expires 12/10/2019), and Same as Curriculum Group (12/14/2015, expires 12/13/2018) for the University of Pittsburgh, Institutional ID#: 2074.

Work Experience

January 1, 2014 – Present
Pittsburgh, PA

University of Pittsburgh
Physician Assistant Studies Program

Assistant Professor

- Assistant Professor at the University of Pittsburgh's Physician Assistant Studies program, which awards a Master of Physician Assistant Studies degree. This program is included within the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences.
- Class and instruction responsibilities include co-instructing Medical Physiology class, and primary responsibility for Clinical Medicine I and Clinical Medicine II.
- Academic advisor for between 8 and 10 students in both the didactic (first) year and the clinical (second) year of the PA program (16-20 total).
- Chair of the Program Assessment Committee at the Physician Assistant Program. This committee is tasked with reviewing program, faculty and student assessment measures. This includes comparison of assessment measures used with NCCPA blueprints, and the use of learning objectives to guide assessments in specific classes.
- Member: Student Advisory Committee, Curriculum Committee, Admissions Committee, Research Committee and Faculty Meeting Committee.
- Guest lecturing within the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences to include general medicine topic lectures to both the undergraduate and graduate Athletic Training programs at the University of Pittsburgh.

June 1, 2007- Present (Casual since January 2014)
Pittsburgh, PA

University of Pittsburgh Medical Center
Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic, UPMC

Certified Physician Assistant II (PA-C II)

Employee#:00063335

- Physician Assistant for Primary Care Medicine at UPMC WPIC- Primary Supervisor, Dr. Frank DePietro, MD. Allied Health Provider Privileges and credentialing through UPMC Presbyterian Hospital.
- Clinical responsibilities include: Primary Care Medicine services for all inpatients at UPMC Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic, Primary responsibilities for the Adolescent and Young Adult unit, and the Adult Schizophrenic and Schizoaffective units. Coverage of all inpatient psych units in the hospital is undertaken at different times, including the Adolescent and Young Adult unit, the Adult Schizophrenic and Schizoaffective units, child and adolescent, drug and alcohol, dual diagnosis, Merck (developmentally disabled, including autism and MR populations), General adult, TRU (long-term psych patients), COPE (Eating Disorder patients), geriatric, and mood disorder dual diagnosis units. Additional responsibilities include initial and other History and Physical Exams on inpatients and patients being transferred from the Diagnostic Emergency Center (DEC) of WPIC, as well as H&Ps on Ambulatory Detoxification and Electro Convulsive Therapy (ECT) patients.

- Member, Violence Committee, 2010-present. Topics include management of violent patients and violent episodes on inpatient units, response and prevention.
- Member, CAT Team, 2007-present. Responsibilities include Staff response to violent patient episodes within the hospital requiring additional response above and beyond the Safety Officers' on duty.
- Promotion to PA II status as of June, 2011. Requirements for this position include above average responsibilities for a Physician Assistant in the UPMC system, as well as above average performance evaluations for 3 years in a given PA-C position in the UPMC system, as well as clinical mentoring of new hires and graduates in the WPIC Primary Care Department.
- Clinical Assistant Professor, Chatham University, academic year 2011-2012. This includes precepting of 2nd year Physician Assistant Studies students in Family/Internal Medicine rotations for 4 week periods, 2 students in the 2011-2012 academic year.
- Clinical Field Instructor, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program, beginning with academic year 2010-2011. This includes precepting of 2nd year Physician Assistant Studies students in Family/Internal medicine rotations for 4 week periods, 2 students in the 2010-2011 academic year.
- Preceptor for education in Physician Assistant responsibilities, both for potential PA students and for those requiring shadowing hours with a PA-C for acceptance into a Physician Assistant Studies program.
- Letter of Commendation recipient for Outstanding work in Primary Care medicine at UPMC WPIC, July 8, 2008.
- 2011 ACES recipient (Award for Commitment and Excellence in Service) at UPMC WPIC. Yearly, approximately 100 employees of UPMC out of more than 50,000 receive this award. Nominated by 9th floor Unit staff.

May 30, 2006 –June 1, 2007
Pittsburgh, PA

University of Pittsburgh Medical Center
University of Pittsburgh Physicians

Certified Physician Assistant (PA-C)

- Physician Assistant for UPMC Sports Medicine – Primary supervisor: Jon K. Sekiya, MD, knee, shoulder, and hip arthroscopy specialty. Allied Health Provider Privileges at both UPMC Presbyterian Campus and UPMC Southside Hospital.
Substitute Physicians: Freddie H. Fu, MD; Christopher D. Harner, MD; Mark W. Rodosky, MD; Robin V. West, MD, Tanya Hagen, MD; David Stone, MD.
- Clinical responsibilities include: new patient visits, follow-up visits, patient calls, post-op and follow-up clinic visits, scheduling of surgical cases, post-op telephone follow-up, medication adjustment, and worker's compensation and insurance company form completion and response; orienting residents and fellows to clinical duties and procedures.
- Surgical responsibilities include pre-operative paperwork, consenting and History and Physical completion; surgical center preparation including informing staff of surgical requirements for individual cases; operating room responsibilities including first- and second- assisting, preparation of knee ligament auto- and allografts; post-op placement of bracing; writing of surgical discharge orders and prescriptions; post-operative care including post-op follow-up via telephone and in clinic, medication adjustment, telephone response to patient concerns; and orienting residents and fellows to surgical duties and procedures.

September 2002 – June 2003
Pittsburgh, PA

University of Pittsburgh Medical Center

Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC)

- Primary responsibility for all Intermediate and Middle School sports at Shaler Area School District, including practices and home games.
- Clinical responsibilities at the Centers for Rehabilitation Services, McCandless and Squirrel Hill, PA.

Aug 1999 – June 2002
McLean, VA

Fairfax County Public Schools

Head Athletic Trainer

- Primary responsibility for all Fairfax County/Virginia High School League sports.
- Instituted a hydration program to prevent heat and dehydration related illness for summer and fall sports.
- Instituted a baseline concussion testing program for concussion prevention and assessment.

Aug 2000 – June 2002
McLean, VA

Fairfax County Public Schools

Special Education Teacher, Langley H.S.

- Designed and implemented Biology curriculum for ninth grade Special Education students (ED, LD, MMR, and Autism).
- Planned and implemented Individual Education Programs (IEPs) for Special Education students according to the Virginia Standards of Learning.
- Developed and maintained formal and informal assessments of student learning in Biology.

August 1999 – June 2000
McLean, VA

Fairfax County Public Schools

Instructional Assistant, Langley H.S.

- Assisted Special Education students by designing and implementing curriculum for students in the autism department.
- Participated in the planning and implementing of Individual Education Programs for Special Education students.
- Coordinated behavior management plans with various faculty and itinerant teachers.

Education

Sept. 1994 – May 1998
Waynesburg, PA

Waynesburg College

B.S. Athletic Training, minor in Biology

- Graduated from CAAHEP accredited curriculum program, with sport responsibilities in:
 - Football
 - Women's Basketball
 - Softball

June 1998 – June 1999
Charlottesville, VA

University of Virginia

Postbaccalaureate Athletic Training

- Graduate Assistantship at Virginia Military Institute.

Aug 2003 – September 2005
Pittsburgh, PA

Chatham College

Masters in Physician Assistant Studies

- Class President, PA Class of 2005
- Class Public Relations Chair
- Co-author, Class of 2005 Honor Code
- Masters Thesis successfully presented, August 2005, to Chatham faculty: Evaluation of Licensed Childcare Providers Knowledge of Autism and Pervasive Developmental Disorders.

Relevant Course Work

- Sport rotations, Waynesburg College, Waynesburg, PA. Student Athletic Trainer with Waynesburg College Athletics with responsibilities including Football, Women's Basketball; high school women's volleyball; and college Sports Med clinic coverage.
- Graduate Assistantship, Virginia Military Institute, VA. Athletic Trainer for VMI football, and primary responsibility for VMI men's soccer, and men's lacrosse teams.
- Clinical Rotation, Orthopedics, Dr. Robert Schilken, Allegheny Orthopaedic Associates, Pittsburgh, PA. Skills learned include: orthopedic history and physical exam, joint injections, orthopedic special testing, radiograph interpretation, surgical first assisting in orthopedics, surgical wound suturing, and patient presentation
- Clinical Rotation, Orthopedics, Dr. Mark Rowley and Dr. Raymond Lower, Countryside Orthopaedics, Leesburg, VA. Skills learned include: Orthopedic patient post-surgical care, orthopedic special testing, splinting and casting, pharmacology of orthopedics, history taking and physical exam for sports participation, and radiograph interpretation.
- Clinical Rotation, Emergency Medicine, Dr. Joel Rosenbloom, Director of Emergency Medicine, UPMC Southside Hospital Emergency Department, Pittsburgh, PA. Skills learned include: the care of emergent and non-emergent problems, suturing of wounds, medical care of ER patients, problem-focused history and physical exam, T sheet documentation of care, patient presentation to preceptors, and the ordering of diagnostic tests for various pathologies and injuries.

- Clinical Rotation, Surgery, Dr. Philip Caushaj, Director of Surgery, West Penn Hospital, Pittsburgh, PA. Skills learned include: the medical management of surgical patients, general surgery procedures, the PA role in the surgical team, first assisting in general surgeries, including: colorectal, gastric, breast, and gall bladder surgery procedures; pre-operative surgical history and physical exam, suturing techniques, surgical consult history and physical exam, and rounding on inpatient population.
- Clinical Rotation, Primary Care, Alan Shear, PA-C, Hot Springs Medical Clinic, Hot Springs, MT. Skills learned include the management of primary care patients, including: care of diabetes mellitus, hypertension, patients with viral and bacterial infections, thyroid disease, dermatological excision and cryotherapy, care of alcoholic patients, primary care psychiatric diagnosis and medication, radiograph interpretation, dictation of patient history and physical, assessment and planning, phlebotomy, vaccination administration, and community outreach planning.
- Clinical Rotation, Women's Health, Dr. John Comerchi, MD, Gynecological Oncology, UPMC Magee Women's Hospital, Pittsburgh PA. Skills learned include the care of gyne/onc patients, including: Pelvic examination, care and administration of chemotherapy and radiation therapy, cancer care and implications in general health, screening and follow-up for before, during, and after cancer diagnosis, dictation of gynecological oncology history and physical exams.
- Clinical Rotation, Pediatrics, Dr. James Pitcavage, MD, Sewickley Valley Pediatrics, Sewickley, PA. Skills learned include the care of pediatric patients in a primary care setting, including: developmental milestones, pediatric vaccination, administration and timing, growth and weight charting, diagnosis of viral and bacterial infections in children, history taking in pediatric populations, physical exam in pediatric and neonatal populations, and preventative medicine in children.
- Clinical Rotation, Psychiatry, Dr. Kenneth Goetz, MD, Inpatient Psychiatry, Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh, PA. Skills learned include the care of inpatient psychiatric patients, including: medical management of inpatient psychiatric patients, mental status examination and documentation, admission and documentation of psychiatric patients, including 302 and 201 patients, diagnosis of psychiatric illness, use and management of psychiatric medications, and legal issues surrounding psychiatric patients.
- Clinical Rotation, Interventional Radiology, Dr. Michael Federle, Joe Martin, PA-C, UPMC Presbyterian and Montefiore Hospitals, Pittsburgh, PA. Skills learned include ultrasound diagnosis and drainage of pleural effusions, abdominal ascites, as well as ultrasound diagnosis and biopsy of thyroid nodules, as well as CT-guided fine-needle aspirations of lung nodules, and guided biopsy of kidney and liver tissue in a transplant setting.
- Clinical Rotation, Primary Care, Audie Horn, PA-C, Katahdin Valley Health Clinic, Island Falls, ME. Skills learned include the management of primary care patients, including: care of diabetes mellitus, hypertension, patients with viral and bacterial infections, thyroid disease, dermatological excisions, care of alcoholic patients, primary care psychiatric diagnosis and medication, dictation of patient cases, presentation of patient to MDs, assessment and planning, vaccination administration, community outreach planning, administration of Federal and State funded underserved health clinic services, use and administration of electronic medical records (EMR), EMR coordination between distant clinics, coordination of dental and medical services.

Educational Honors and Awards

- Xi Psi Epsilon Academic Fraternity Member, Waynesburg College
- Class President, Chatham College Physician Assistant Studies Program Class of 2005
- Public Relations Chair, Chatham College Physician Assistant Studies Program Class of 2005
- Co-author, Chatham College Physician Assistant Studies Program Class of 2005 Honor Code
- 2004 PSPA Nate Alston Senior Student Scholarship Award Winner, October 15, 2004.
- Admissions Committee Member, Chatham College Physician Assistant Studies Program, February, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007.

Description of Thesis

Master's Thesis, Chatham College MPAS program- presented August 2005. Evaluation of Licensed Childcare Providers Knowledge of Autism and Pervasive Developmental Disorders.

Academic and Professional Presentations

- Guest lecturer, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Program, in Clinical Medicine I and II, 2012 and 2013; various topics in medicine.
- Lab proctor, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Program, 2012, Various topics in medicine.
- Community Outreach presentation, Hot Springs Emergency Services meeting, Hot Springs, MT, October, 2004. Topic presented: Fitness, Weight Loss and Hydration for Firemen and EMTs.
- Presenter, 2003 UPMC Student Athletic Training Conference, August 2003. Topic presented: Environmental Considerations in Athletic Training.
- Guest lecturer, 2014 to present, undergraduate and graduate University of Pittsburgh Athletic Training programs, Special Topics in Athletic Training. 2 lectures, 2 hours each in both the Bachelor's and the Master's level Athletic Training program, all on general medical topics related to Athletic Training practice.
- Lecturer at the 2015 Pennsylvania Society of Physician Assistants CME Conference, Erie, PA. Lecture topic: CVD and DM: What a Pair!

Related Professional and Association Memberships

- National Athletic Training Association (NATA) Previous Member #977135, District #2, expired
- American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA) Member #1018924.
- Pennsylvania Society of Physician Assistants (PSPA) Member #354308.

Technical and Specialized Skills

- American Heart Association Healthcare Provider, CPR/AED
- American Heart Association Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS) Provider
- American Heart Association Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS) Provider
- National Athletic Training Association Board of Certification National Certification Exam Proctor- 1999, 2000, 2001.
- NFICEP Certified Sports First Aid Instructor
- Fairfax County Public Schools Technology Standards Certified
- Certified Family and Life Education (Sex Education) Instructor
- Privileges as an Allied Health Professional at UPMC Presbyterian Shadyside- Presbyterian Campus (2006-Present)
- Previous privileges (2006-2007) as an Allied Health Professional at UPMC Southside Hospital

Committee Memberships and Advisory Positions

- Chair, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program- Program Assessment Committee. January 2015-present
- Faculty-Student Liaison, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program. January 2014-present
- Faculty Advisor, Student Society of the University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program. January 2014-present
- Faculty Advisor representing the Physician Assistant profession to the University of Pittsburgh Primary Care Progress organization. June 2015-present
- Member, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program Student Advisory Committee. January 2014-present
- Member, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program Academic Curriculum Committee. January 2014-present
- Member, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program Admissions Committee. January 2014-present
- Member, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program Research Committee. January 2014-present
- Member, University of Pittsburgh Physician Assistant Studies Program Faculty Meeting Committee. January 2014-present