

Tracie Ann Nguyen, MPT

1603 Rockford Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15226
412-215-626

nguyenta@upmc.edu

Professional Qualifications

Licensed physical therapist in Pennsylvania with a MPT degree and experience in an inpatient rehabilitation and acute care setting. Physical therapy supervisor with 15 years experience in treating, teaching and implementing programs for patients and students for a prestigious Level 1 trauma hospital.

Education

Master of Physical therapy, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA	1999
Bachelor of Science in Athletic training, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA	1997

Work Experience

Physical therapist and supervisor for UPMC Centers for Rehab Services
UPMC Rehabilitation Institute at UPMC Mercy Hospital
February 2009 – Present

- Direct physical therapy operations for a 14 bed rehabilitation unit
- Evaluate and plan treatment for trauma, orthopedic, neurological, burn, amputee, cardiac, medically complex and geriatric patients
- Work as a part of a team in program development program, re-engineering committee and FIM improvement groups
- Utilize a collaborative approach and attend weekly multi-disciplinary meetings with PT's, OT's, speech therapist's, nurses, case managers, physicians and neuro-psychologists
- Train and treat same day surgical patients
- Participate in program development for amputee population to include amputee support group, education programs and competencies which is essential for CARF accreditation
- Scheduling for staff and physical therapy students

Clinical adjunct facultyUniversity of Pittsburgh Physical therapy

October 2013 – Present

- Serve as a professional role model to physical therapy students and support clinical instructors
- Maintain responsibility for the physical therapy students' clinical education

Teaching assistantUniversity of Pittsburgh Physical therapy

April 2015 – Present

Assist professor in neuromuscular physical therapy class in group discussion, testing, etc.

Physical therapist for UPMC Centers for Rehab ServicesUPMC South Side

September 2000- February 2009

- Senior staff physical therapist and rehab liason
- Acute care/same day surgical unit/inpatient rehab

Centers for Rehab Services Home Health Care

October 2001-2005

- Staff physical therapist to assess and treat patients within the home setting to return to community

Activities and Certifications:

- APTA (American physical therapy association)
- American Heart Association, CPR
- FIM certification

References available upon request

