Interprofessional Practice in Action: Acute Care Speech-Language Pathology
Elizabeth Mormer

Ms. Mormer has the following relevant financial relationship to disclose: she is employed by UPMC. She has no relevant non-financial relationships to disclose.

Learning Objectives
Following this presentation, participants will be able to:
1. Explain the different areas of expertise and skill sets across related professionals working with Speech-Language Pathologists in the acute care setting
2. Describe one or more of the interprofessional competencies necessary to work successfully in an interprofessional team
3. Describe the role that audiologists can play in supporting interprofessional services with Speech-Language Pathologists in acute care settings

This course is offered for 0.1 ASHA CEUs (Instructional Level: Intermediate; Content Area: Professional)