See below for information on hooding and honor cords.

Other Information Regarding Regalia and Attire

All students should wear their tassels on the right side of their mortarboard.

- We will not have extra regalia or components of regalia for you at the ceremony. Please come prepared!
- Please wear sensible shoes as you must go up and down steps to the stage.

Hooding for Graduate Students

These students should carry the hood on their left arm as they approach the stage for hooding.

- Doctoral degrees in Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Audiology, Physician Assistant Studies, Doctor of Clinical Science in Occupational Therapy and Speech-Language Pathology will be hooded on stage by their department.
- PhD recipients will be hooded on stage by their committee chair and the title of their dissertation will be read.

Honor Cords for Undergraduates

Undergraduate Honor Cords will be given out at Graduation Central. If you are unable to pick them up at Graduation Central, SHRS will have them for you in your student line-up area at the ceremony. This applies to December 2023 graduates ONLY.

- To qualify for Honors, one must have completed 60 letter-graded credits of coursework from Pitt and have a 3.250 Cumulative GPA.
- This will be based on your previously enrolled (spring or summer 2023) term, as your grades are not final for fall term until December 19.
