EMERGING LEADERS SCHOLARSHIP
Eligibility Requirements

We realize at SHRS that leadership skills are not always learned in a classroom and through coursework alone. Therefore, we have committed to financially support students each fall and spring terms to participate in the Emerging Leaders program at the University of Pittsburgh.

Emerging Leaders uses an experiential, hands-on approach over ten weeks or a weekend option, that allows you to learn by doing rather than by merely listening. Sessions revolve around small and large group discussions, team building activities, community engagement, leadership continuums, and role playing. Topics covered include group dynamics, diversity, leadership theory and practice, ethics and values, conflict management, and the development of your leadership pathway.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

- Students must be enrolled in a degree seeking undergraduate program in the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences at full time status.
- Students must be in good academic standing at the time of application.
- Students must have a minimum of a 2.500 or greater cumulative GPA.
- Students must submit a one page essay describing what they expect to gain from participation in the Emerging Leaders program and how this will help them personally and professionally in their career.
